Half term

Just a reminder we break up today for October half term. We hope you have a lovely break and remember to stay safe. School will re-open on Monday 2nd November at 8.40am.

SMSC mark moderation

As a school we would just like to say a thank you to all the children, parents and governors who helped with our SMSC mark moderation by providing us with information or contributing their views and speaking so kindly about our great school. Thank you also to all the staff who are always providing our children with a high-quality education whilst developing their SMSC skills and helping them be the lovely pupils they are! The school has done great and as soon as we have our final decision, we will let you all know how we did!

Music

Music lessons for next half term are now available to pay on ParentPay. Please pay before Monday 2nd November. Thank you

Parents evening

As we are unable to hold parents evening in the usual way this term, we have been working on a different solution that will still give parents an opportunity to find out about their child's progress. In the week after half term, parents will be sent a mini progress report and short statement from their teachers. If after receiving this report you would still like to discuss progress with your child's teacher, you will be to request a call back during the allocated slot for your class. More information will follow in a letter that will be sent out with the reports.

Friends of Raddlebarn

The Friends of Raddlebarn AGM will be held on Wed 4 November at 5pm via Skype.

The meeting will include a review of the past year and the election of a new committee. Everyone is invited to attend. You can join the meeting without setting up a Skype account, you just need to access the following link:

<https://join.skype.com/btslwQBglay>

There's still time to join the committee if you're interested or if you would like to nominate someone. Please email for @radlbarn.bham.sch.uk

Homework

This weeks homework is about United Nations Day.

The homework link is,

<https://padlet.com/raddlebarnhomework/united-nations>

This weeks homework heroes are, Rayan (6BK), Winston (1SH), Airah (RH) Remember to put your name on your post if you would like to be in with a chance of winning Miss Lowry's 'Homework Hero of the Week'. If you post your homework on the padlet, your name will be put into a prize draw to win a pottery workshop with Eastnor Pottery!

Reminders

- A polite reminder that we are a nut free school. This is due to some pupils and staff having a serious allergy to nuts. This includes Nutella and Snicker chocolate bars. Also a reminder for grapes to be cut in half to prevent a choking hazard.

- Dropping off and picking up— Can parents please respect social distancing when dropping off and collecting. If you have any messages or questions please call or email the school office as staff are trying to maintain safety and the flow of human traffic into school. Also, only one adult may come onto the site to drop off and collect. Please also wear a mask if possible.

- Also, can we please remind parents it is illegal to park or drop your child off on the zig-zag lines outside the school.

Homework project

As a fun homework project for half term, we thought it would be lovely to carry out an art activity spanning all year groups. The idea is that as many children as possible from all year groups could create a portrait of a famous person who made an impact on Black History. We have chosen Rosa Parks and Barack Obama as most children are familiar with their story. So, if your child would create a portrait on A4 paper, we would be thrilled to see the results across school. They can use any medium they would like for example, sketching, painting, pastels, crayon, collage or digital art. We look forward to seeing the amazing creations when we return after half term.
