Back to School

We are VERY excited to be welcoming all children back into school on Monday; we hope you are looking forward to it as much as we are. We sent out a letter this week with all the information you will need about school reopening, Please make sure you have read it before children return. Here are a few reminders :

- Only bring in lunch bags/labelled medications and water bottles-no bags. .
- Full uniform must be worn
- PE kit to be worn on PE days (please see class pages on the website for PE days)
- All devices loaned by the school for home learning need to be brought back on Monday with any charges and plugs
- Hot meals will be available for Early Years and KS1 as a trial. Cold meals will be available for KS2. If you want a meal provided for your child-you will need to book them on ParentPay. You can do this on the afternoon of Friday 5th March.

Lastly, we would like to once again say a HUGE thank you to our children, parents and staff. These times have been really challenging . It has been lovely to see our Raddlebarn community pull together through the challenges we have faced. We could not have done it without your support, be sure to check out our special message on our twitter feed and school website. Now... let's get back into the classroom! We can't wait to see you all on Monday!

Keeping Active – Keeping Healthy

Everyone has been working so hard to help to improve and raise awareness of children's health and well-being over these last few weeks. For some new ideas of little extra things to do please follow this link for part 4...

World Book Day

Even though we weren't all together for World Book Day on Thursday, we still had such a great time. Lots of children (and adults!) dressed up as their favourite book characters - at home and in school! We were completing lots of fun activities and watching some really cool live lessons and master classes from some famous authors and illustrators (such as Lydia Monks, Tom Fletcher, Michael Rosen, Benjamin Zephaniah, Jonny Duddle, Joseph Chelo and Katherine Rundell).

We love seeing what everyone has been recommending on the Raddlebarn Book Blanket - you can still go on now and have a look at the books. You can also recommend one if you haven't had a chance to yet! <https://padlet.com/raddlebarnhomework/worldbookday2021>

Lots of children have already logged onto the Raddlebarn Virtual Library - you can still access that on our website and Twitter page too so make sure you check it out!

Miss Huxley will be checking the Bug Club competition entries at the end of the week so you still have some time over the weekend to log on and get reading to try and win the fantastic £100 treat for your class from Friends of Raddlebarn! 😊

We hope you enjoyed the day as much as we did!

Guess the Reading Teacher

Many of you have had a go at our 'Guessing The Reading Teacher' game - you still have a chance to play if you log on to the school website: SPOILER ALERT! Close your eyes to the answers below.

Playing our part to keep safe

As you are all aware we had more complaints from the local community and other parents about the mixing of bubbles and lack of social distancing in the park after school. When school returns please can we all make a conscious effort to follow government guides to keep everyone safe.

Follow us on Twitter @Raddlebarn_Sch for lot's of exciting news and information about things going on in school and much more. Check out this post about Perseverance Mars Mission and watch the real time video the descent to Mars! Its pretty awesome .

Can we please ask that any correspondence to the school should be put in an email to the following email address:
